

When you give to the CBF Offering for Global Missions, you help change lives around the world.

The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship's Offering for Global Missions is a part of God's ongoing work in the world. More than 135 CBF Global Missions field personnel are serving among some of the most neglected people in the world, and your gifts are needed to fund these life-changing ministries. These field personnel — called by God and sent by you and other Fellowship Baptists — are touching lives through their longterm presence. They are sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ in word and action.

You can help. You can do something. You can help be the compassionate presence of Christ by giving to the CBF Offering. The CBF Offering provides the financial support for many field personnel and keeps them on the ministry fields of our world. Your gifts spread the gospel among those who haven't heard, meet physical needs among the most neglected and serve the local church by providing ways for churches like yours to participate in God's mission.

Each year thousands of lives are changed because people like you give to the CBF Offering for Global Missions. Pray about giving a gift today. 100 percent of your gift to the CBF Offering will go to help people hear and experience the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Welcoming refugees in California

God's mission, your passion

When refugees from Afghanistan arrive in Fremont, Calif., they come with little but memories of their troubled past. Desperate to leave their home country, which has been gripped by violence and conflict for decades, many arrive in the United States and face immediate challenges, such as learning English and adjusting to American life. Since 2002, Cooperative Baptist Fellowship field personnel Lita and Rick Sample have made the transition easier for hundreds of refugees. Every day they share the Gospel in word and deed through befriending, loving and helping refugee families with everything from getting furniture to filing immigration papers.
