The son of a Baptist pastor, Gabe Orea grew up ministering among some of the most neglected people in Mexico. Now he serves in China, where he supports local Chinese churches and ministers among some of the least evangelized and most neglected people in the city of Xiamen.

Working with local registered churches, Orea seeks to build relationships. “My work is not to go to the mission field to do anything special, but as I go anywhere, keep being a follower of Jesus, extending to others the mercy I have received from the body of Christ. That should positively influence people, no matter where I am.”

Orea is a computer engineer and a graduate of CBF partner Truett Theological Seminary in Waco, Texas, where he served as a volunteer pastor of a Hispanic church. Orea and his wife, Victoria, have two children.

About the Fellowship

CBF is a fellowship of Baptist Christians and churches who share a passion for the Great Commission and a commitment to Baptist principles of faith and practice. The Fellowship's mission is to serve Christians and churches as they discover and fulfill their God-given mission. This includes commissioning CBF field personnel to ministry around the world and facilitating connections between those personnel and partner congregations. Learn more at www.thefellowship.info.
